

OPC GOSSIP

NEW YORK
October 11, 1945.

Grace Davidson of the Boston Post had a story in the June issue of PAGEANT called "Suckers For a Paris Label," which has been reprinted in full in the October number of "The Woman."

Dora Miller is back from Paris and brought to the Luncheon yesterday Helen Kirkpatrick, of the Chicago Daily News, just returned from Europe. Helen has covered the war since the beginning, spending part of the time in London. We hope she will become a member.

In the September 29th issue of Collier's, there was a great story, with pictures, of our beloved Jimmy Hare. Which reminds us that Jimmy should be a drawing card for young photographers.

Does anybody know where Sedley Peck is?

Albert Crockett and his stories of the beginning of the century were the fascinating highlights of a recent AP feature story sent out all over the country.

There will be a meeting of the Admissions Committee on Monday, October 15th in the OPC office at 5 P. M.

Joseph W. F. Stoppelman is going to the Netherlands and other surrounding countries in a few weeks and will write for several American publications while abroad, including the Christian Science Monitor. Which will make him an Active and no longer an associate member.

Call the office if you wish tickets for the Town Hall Meeting of the Air.

Has anybody any suggestions about new quarters? The Board is looking for a new suitable location.

"U. S. S. Sea Wolf," a story of submarine life, has just been published by G. P. Putnam. It was written by one of our members, Gerold Frank, with James D. Horan. The book was held up by Navy censorship.
